

Alvin Lankford

Chief Appraiser Williamson Central Appraisal District

Alvin Lankford has worked for Williamson Central Appraisal District for 14 years and was hired as Chief Appraiser in 2009. Mr. Lankford holds a Registered Professional Appraiser Designation from the State of Texas. He graduated Magna Cum Laude from Texas State University with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science.

Mr. Lankford has worked in various positions at the appraisal district after starting as a residential appraiser. Using the knowledge gained in these various roles Mr. Lankford is creating an environment of sharing in which the public and the taxing units of Williamson County have benefited from increased transparency and availability of information. He has increased the usage of technology to create more efficiency and increase the accuracy of the appraisal roll. Mr. Lankford is a member of the Texas Association of Appraisal Districts, Texas Association of Assessing Officers, and the International Association of Assessing Officers.

Mr. Lankford is a proud father of two teenage girls Shelby 15, and Emily 13. And husband to Lorie who is the Assistant Director of Finance at the City of Round Rock.